Romans 12:13-21

1. Is there a limit to how much I give to others? How do I decide how much to give? (v. 13)
2. How do you handle it when you have been wronged? (v. 14; 17-21). What can help me to forgive others? (see also 1 Pet. 2:20-23)
3. Verses 15-16 challenge us to live in harmony with others. What is the primary cause for conflict among believers? How does the statement: "We are all beggars in the hands of the living God", help me to recalibrate my thinking? Can you give an example?
4. Because of God's mercy, I can love others on a supernatural level. Since I am called to be a "living sacrifice" what areas of my life are hard for me to keep surrendered? What am I afraid of?
