

Community Group

Study Guide

11.22.2009

Romans 14

1. Can you accept Christians who don't have the same convictions you have? Describe your struggle in this? What can help you to accept others?
2. What does it mean to be in the world, but not of the world?
3. What are you doing to protect yourself and your children from the evil influences around you?
4. What are some principles you use to help guide your choices in disputable areas?
5. Is it possible that you have caused a fellow believer to stumble without knowing it? What can be done to prevent this from happening?
6. What does the phrase "Love God and do whatever you want." mean to you?