Romans 2:1-16

1. What attitude should we have when God refrains from judging someone else's sin? How are we able to forgive the sin of others when it affects us personally? What helps us to be gracious in our judgment of others?
2. How have you experienced God's patience and kindness towards sinners...toward you?
3. What are some guidelines we can follow when we think something is wrong with another believer?

See Gal. 6:1-5; Heb. 3:12-13; Matt. 5:23-24; 18:15-20

4. By what standard will God judge people who claim to have faith in Christ?

See Matt. 7:21-23; 25:31-46; Luke 12:47-48; Eph. 4:1; Heb. 11:1-12; James 2:14-26; 1 John 1:8-2:6

5. What key truths in Romans 2:1-16 about God's judgment are relevant to the gospel you share with unbelievers?

God judges according to truth, works, without partiality, according to opportunity, knowing the secrets of our hearts.
