Nehemiah Chapter 13

1. In the opening of Nehemiah 13:1-3, he speaks of separation from evil. Read 1 Cor. 5:9-13 and discuss what that might imply for the church today. What is the danger of professing Christians living in outright sinful behaviors?

"I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. "But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. —"Purge the evil person from among you."

2. Three promises were broken from an oath in Nehemiah 10.

The Support Promise (v. 4-14)

The Sabbath Promise (v. 15-22)

The Separation Promise (v. 23-29)

Discuss from each section, how the compromises were made and what Nehemiah did to confront. Notice the strong actions taken by him as a leader. Why do you think Nehemiah reacted so decisively?

3. Discuss how these three promises are relevant to us today? How do each of them reflect a heart of worship?

4. Why do we have great intentions and then not follow through? Discuss.

Notice the way Nehemiah is living for the greatness of God and for the future.

Read the three "Remember me" statements of Nehemiah.

"Remember me for this, O my God, and do not blot out what I have so faithfully done for the house of my God and its services." (Nehemiah 13:14)

"Remember me for this also, O my God, and show mercy to me according to your great love." (Nehemiah 13:22)

"Remember me with favor, O my God." (Nehemiah 13:31)

How can we stay on track living for the greatness of God?

Application:

Pray quietly and discern whether there are small concessions you've made that need to be dealt with strongly. Consider sharing this with someone.
