

Living Hope
1 Peter 5:8-14
Study Guide

Peter finishes his letter with sobering imagery of our enemy, the devil, as a lion, prowling about, seeking to “devour” us. That is a bit scary, to be honest. In truth, we are in a spiritual battle and under attack. How are we to approach this reality? The big idea this week is to battle evil with truth and faith!

1. What tends to be your approach to the devil as a destructive lion? Are you too chill about it, or too fearful?
2. Read v. 8a. What does it mean for you to be ‘sober-minded’ and ‘watchful’? Discuss.
3. Read v. 8b. Satan hates you for being a follower of Jesus. He wants you to wander away from close fellowship with Jesus so he can cause you pain. It worked with Adam and Eve. Notice how he lied to them. That is his strategy. He is known as the “Father of lies” (John 8:44). He lies about who he is, who God is, and the fact that rebellion is not a big deal. Discuss some of the lies Satan tells us, and how to combat them. How did Jesus battle the lies of Satan when He was tempted (Matthew 4)? How does knowing and reminding ourselves of God’s truths protect us from the lies? Discuss.
4. Read v. 9-11. Discuss the five ‘faith’ elements that will help you in your battle.
 - a. Resist in Faith- (see also James 4:7).
 - b. Be firm in faith- (see also Ephesians 6:10)
 - c. Be together in faith- What does ‘brother/sisterhood’ mean to you?
 - d. Be future-oriented in faith- How does seeing the future outcome help you today?
 - e. Be worshipping in faith- How does worship, protect you in the battle?

Application

1. Name one lie that Satan has been trying to tempt you with. Vocalize a truth from God's word that uncovers the lie.
2. Which of the five 'faith' elements could you implement this coming week? Take a few moments to pray for each other in the spiritual battle.
