

Study Guide
The Radical Joy of God
Matt. 5:6

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness for they shall be satisfied.”

1. When you evaluate your current situation, what do you find yourself desiring most? How do your activities and priorities reflect that hunger?

2. Read Psalm 42:1-2

“As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for you, my God.

My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When can I go and meet with God?”

What does David really long for? How is that different from many of the things we long for? Have you ever found yourself longing for God the way David describes it here? Share your experience.

3. How can the gift of “righteousness” create...

a. ...a new heart in us? (see also John 6:53; Jer. 31:33).

b. ...a new lifestyle? (see John 4:13-14).

4. Discuss the idea that you and I are being lied to by our culture and our cravings. Rather than denying our desires, how can we redirect them? What does true satisfaction look like?

Application

Pray quietly and ask God to reveal hidden desires that may never satisfy.

Follow the format of this prayer:

Replacement Prayer

God, I am hungry for (fill in the blank).

Thank you that this is a reflection of my hunger for YOU!

If I'm honest, I'm desperate for you!

I want to live a first-hand experience with you, God!

Please satisfy my desires with good things.

I surrender to you.
