

Sermon Notes | Don't Forget To Remember

Exodus 13:3-10

"3 Then Moses said to the people, "Remember this day when you came out of Egypt, out of the place of slavery, for the Lord brought you out of here by the strength of his hand. Nothing leavened may be eaten. 4 Today, in the month of Abib,[a] you are going out. 5 When the Lord brings you into the land of the Canaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Hivites, and Jebusites,[b] which he swore to your ancestors that he would give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you must carry out this ceremony in this month. 6 For seven days you must eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there is to be a festival to the Lord. 7 Unleavened bread is to be eaten for those seven days. Nothing leavened may be found among you, and no yeast may be found among you in all your territory. 8 On that day explain to your son, 'This is because of what the Lord did for me when I came out of Egypt.' 9 Let it serve as a sign for you on your hand and as a reminder on your forehead,[c] so that the Lord's instruction may be in your mouth; for the Lord brought you out of Egypt with a strong hand. 10 Keep this statute at its appointed time from year to year."

Remember what he has done.

Study Guide | Don't Forget To Remember

Do you ever read through The Bible and get surprised when God's people in the Old Testament betray him? How could they forget all the miracles that God did? When we look at our own lives we find that we operate in the same way.

There's a special tool and encouragement that God has given us to ensure that our hearts stay close to him and we have a faith that lasts.

Big Idea: To build a faith that lasts, establish a practice of remembering

1. What was one key point from the sermon that stood out to you this weekend? Why did it resonate with you?
2. Read Exodus 13:3-10. Why do you think God told his people to celebrate this specific holiday?
3. What has God done in your life this year? Take a moment to share any significant moments or changes.
4. Have a testimony time where a few people share their testimony of salvation or have everyone take a few minutes to write out their testimony.
5. What are the attributes of God that have been most evident to you in recent times?
6. What are some simple ways you can set aside time this month to remember God's work in your life? How can you build this practice into your routine?
7. Close in Prayer
